

Declaration of Creative Ownership

Comprehensive Integration of All Spiralverse™ Narrative Systems and Symbolic Structures

By Heileny Suárez González

ARTICLE 1 – AUTHORSHIP AND CREATION

I, Heileny Suárez González, declare that I am the sole and original creator of the following intellectual properties and narrative innovations, conceived, developed, authored and structured as part of my unified creative vision and authorship of the Spiralverse™:

Spiral Narrative Framework™

Spiralverse™ (universe and all integrated systems)

Spiral Loop Architecture™

Spiralverse Switch Rhythm™

Spiral Music Architecture™

Spiralverse Poetic Prose™

Spiralverse Emotional Map™

Spiralverse Character Arc™

Spiralverse Worldbuilding™

Spiralverse Justice™

Spiralverse Visual Language™

Each of these methods, systems and frameworks is the result of my original artistic process and narrative design. They were born out of necessity, innovation, and my lifelong commitment to ethical storytelling and symbolic cinematic creation.

ARTICLE 2 – INTEGRATION AND SYSTEM UNITY

All components listed above are inseparable parts of the Spiralverse™ ecosystem, developed in harmony as an emotional, symbolic, architectural and narrative system. They are not standalone resources, but interconnected methodologies, authored by me to function as a unified creative language for:

Symbolic filmmaking

Emotional storytelling

Non-linear narrative development

Ethical worldbuilding

Music and visual-poetic integration

Justice-centred narrative repair

Each system is part of a greater narrative and symbolic spiral — and all rights to their use, reproduction, or interpretation remain exclusively with their creator, Heileny Suárez González.”

ARTICLE 3 – EXCLUSIVE RIGHTS

All rights, including use, reproduction, training, adaptation, reinterpretation, and presentation, of each component listed are exclusively reserved to me, the author.

No person, institution, company, agency, or creative entity may use or reproduce any part of these systems without my explicit written and signed authorization.

Unauthorized use constitutes a direct violation of copyright, creative ownership, and moral rights, and will be addressed under international legal frameworks, including the Berne Convention.

ARTICLE 4 – LEGAL RECOGNITION AND REGISTRATION

This declaration is aligned with national and international copyright law and is part of the official global registration of the Spiralverse™ and its proprietary systems.
